

Sleuth

Everyone loves a mystery. Everyone! Young and not so young, we all want to know, "Who Dunn it!?" The same mental mechanism that compels us to slow down to look at a car accident, making traffic even worse, makes us love a mystery. Our brains are not only wired to solve a problem, they are specifically designed to sort out a problem and come up with a solution. The more we exercise our problem solving skills, the better they become, the more brain synapses we build. Use Sleuth, the Mystery Game to:

- Entertain yourself with professionally written, editor approved, 5 Minute mysteries
- Improve problem solving techniques
- Enhance critical thinking skills
- Strengthen deductive reasoning and research ability
- Sharpen your attentive listening, reading comprehension, - communication and leadership skills
- Lower your weight, clear your acne, and meet your soul mate!
